Brigham City Senior Center

Brigham City Senior Division serves persons 60 years of age and older in southeastern Box Elder County. We are a non-profit, government-sponsored agency, and a department of Brigham City Corporation. There are no membership fees. Most services are offered free of charge, or for a small donation. We are the only agency in the area that provides comprehensive services to the elderly population.

Cache County Senior Citizen's Center

The Cache County Senior Center provides programs and activities that will enable older adults of Cache County who are 60 years of age or older to stay healthy and independent.

The philosophy of the Cache County Senior Center is based on these premises: that aging is a normal development process; and that human beings need peers with whom they can interact and who are available as a source of encouragement and support.
